

Let's start with Chapter One

Mr. Steven Holtzman

"If I can only describe this watch with one word, it is Alchemy; a mixture of precise mentalities. In the case of Maitres du Temps, it is a mixture of different personalities, a mixture of the spirit of the greatest watch-makers of the century," Steven Holtzman said.

A new brand, Maitres du Temps, has been proudly presented by the most passionate watch-lover, Mr. Steven Holtzman, representing the painstaking effort of three of the world's greatest watchmakers. Their first watch is called Chapter One.

"One of the reasons to name our first watch Chapter One is because we would like to tell and share our story with all connoisseurs in the world while this watch is our first Chapter and more are coming," Steven revealed.

"I'm more than happy to have the greatest watch-makers of the century, Roger Dubuis, Christophe Claret and Peter Speake-Marin to write the first chapter of our story," he enthused.

Roger Dubuis was happy to join the production team though he was retired. "Maitres du Temps is important to me as it allows several watchmakers to come together and create a new product which will definitely be the target of connoisseurs."

(Left to Right) Roger Dubuis, Peter Speake-Marin & Christophe Claret