

THE SHAPE OF THINGS

With roots in the '20s and '30s, the barrel-shaped tonneau watch is a statement-making timepiece packed with a bevy of extra functions.
by Roberta Naas

1. The palladium Henry Double Hairspring watch ($26,500) from H. Moser & Cie features a mechanical movement, smoky dial and crocodile strap. Cellini, The Waldorf=Astoria, 301 Park Ave., 212-751-9824; h-moser.com

2. This Vacheron Constantin Malte Moon Phase and Power Reserve watch ($34,500) in 18k white gold offers power-reserve indication and moonphase readout. Wempe, 700 Fifth Ave., 212-397-9000; vacheronconstantin.com

3. Crafted in ceramic and titanium grade 5, the Da Vinci Ceramic ($16,600) from IWC is an automatic chronograph. Wempe, 700 Fifth Ave., 212-397-9000; iwc.com

4. This Maîtres du Temps limited-edition Chapter Two watch ($73,500) in 18k white gold houses a complex 382-part movement and instantaneous triple-calendar functions in a unique readout. Cellini, 509 Madison Ave., 212-888-0505; maitresdutemps.com

5. From Carl F. Bucherer, this stainless steel Patravi T-24 ($5,100) features date indication at 3 o'clock, a second time zone at 12 and power-reserve indication at 6. Kaufmann de Suisse, 785 Madison Ave., 877-249-5700; carl-f-bucherer.com

PHOTOGRAPH BY MANFRED DUBACH (H. MOSER & CIE)